Read the following passage carefully and then answer the questions that follow:

Children are the blessings from God. Knowing this; parents have to show their thanks by loving them and taking good care of them. A future prosperity of any society depends upon their children since, they are the ones who will come to develop what has been initiated by their guardians. However, that will never happen if the parents and guardians will not give the Children all necessities that will build them to become good members of the society.

In this sense sacrifice which means that the guardians have to do whatever necessary to provide their kids with education, healthcare, love and security so that they can grow up well and be able to fulfill the societies expectations. No kids are coming out of the sky. No streets are able to bear children. All the kids around the streets are from the people in the society. Thus, strengthening family ties and develop a sense of communal responsibility towards our children is what will save us toward the problem of street children.
